Ellen R. Moore, founder of Moore Creative Strategies, LLC, is a proven leader and team builder with experience in both large and small environments. She's been the top executive in three different businesses and achieved tremendous results in each. She works in healthcare, service, retail, manufacturing, not-for-profit, and a slew of other industries. After more than 25 years of experience, Ellen has proven herself time and time again, always focused on helping develop leaders and helping people and organizations change. She coaches and teaches coaching skills to physicians. Ellen is a longstanding supporter of WELI, and her workshops for WELI advisors and protégés in 2019 received outstanding reviews. With a M.S. in Organizational Psychology stacked atop a B.A. in Journalism/Advertising, she combines creativity and possibility with human behavior. The results create the energy to help people do what they think may be impossible. In the midst of dramatic professional success, she is most proud of her 28-year marriage to Brian and both of her extraordinary daughters. When not working, you can find Ellen hiking, writing, or searching for a better way to do just about anything.
